NEW LEAGUE RULING FAIR TO ALL CLUBS

Jack Velock.
(I. N. S. Sports Editor.)
NEW YORK, June 30.—The National league made a far sighted ruling at a recent meeting in New York. The new rule has to do with players who are in the army and navy, and who frequently find time to rejoin their clubs and play several games while on furlough.

After September 1 no player in the service will be permitted to take part in a championship game unless his club is under the player limit of twenty-three men, and prior to that date no player will be eligible to don his service uniform and don baseball regalia unless he has written permission from his commanding officer.

Several star players in both the National and American leagues who could be a big help to their respective clubs during the race down the home stretch to pennantville next fall, will be counted on in case they can secure furloughs and in the National league in case their teams are carrying less than twenty-three men.

Think what a help Grover Alexander would be to the Cubs should he be able to return during a crucial series. Figure out what Red Faber might do in the way of helping the White Sox. It would be mighty soft for either of these clubs could they call their pitching stars back in time of need, but it would cause much ill feeling among the rival clubs.

For this very reason the National league promulgated its recent ruling, and it is eminently fair to all clubs.

CLOSE-UPS IN SPORTDOM

Allan Markley.
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, June 30.—Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington Americans, has a youngster on his pitching staff who has the earmarks of developing into a great pitcher. Griffith, who is one of the best judges of pitchers, and himself a former box star, thinks that the new man has the "stuff" although to date his major league performance has not borne out the contention.

Garland Buckeye is the lad's name. Buckeye hails from Gary, Ind., where he began playing baseball on a grammar school team, later becoming identified with a semi-pro team of that city. He is 6 feet 6 inches tall and weighs 175 pounds.

On his debut he did not make a very good showing, being sent into the game after it had been lost by Shaw. He pitched only two innings, passing a man and forcing in a run.

He also found time to put enough of the balls across the plate to strike two men out, one each inning.

The thing which marks the youngster as a comer in the pitcher's box is his speedy curve. A powerful man, he seems to have all the speed that Walter Johnson can put into his delivery.

Griffith says that his wildness on his first appearance in the big game was due to stage fright, and Buckeye frankly admits the same.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVED GENERALLY THOUGH SOUTH

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 30.—Memorial Day, the national holiday, was observed more generally in the South than ever before despite the fact that most of the Southern states observe some day other than May 30 as Memorial Day.

But the fact that thousands of Southern boys are fighting side by side with Northern boys in Europe and that there are many sons of the South sleeping in new-made graves across the sea—graves that are being decorated today—has brought a new meaning to Memorial Day in the South.

Many industrial plants and business houses closed and appropriate exercises were held.

Heretofore, observance consisted only of closing the post offices and national banks.

ASHLAND, Wis., July 1.—Forty-six saloons hung crepe on their doors at midnight last night.

Business men are also concerned with the problem of entertainment. There are approximately 1,500 transients here from the mines, woods and explosive plants.

The town is already considering municipal moving picture houses and other forms of amusement.

GOOD SAMARITAN REPAID BY SOLDIER SHE HELPED

NEVADA, Mo., July 1.—Mrs. S. H. Mellet, owner of a small home bakery here, has received word from the war department she will receive $10,000 insurance on the life of Thomas H. Price, a soldier who recently died from the accidental discharge of a gun aboard a transport.

Price came here several years ago, ill and penniless. Mrs. Mellet took him in her home, nursed and cared for him until he was well, and then helped him secure a job. Assigning of his war risk insurance to her was the only way he could show his gratitude, he told her, just before leaving.

SETS EXAMPLE TO FIVE SONS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—As an example to his five sons, who are still a few years short of fighting age, George Bradshaw, prosperous farmer of Imperial county, has enlisted in the engineers' corps here.

"I want my boys to realize when they are old enough to be taken into the service that their place is on the firing line," Bradshaw said. He is thirty-eight years old.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Golf clubs throughout the country are making a momentous effort to raise funds for the American Red Cross. So far, the season has progressed the plan has been unusually successful.

Last year, with the aid of Charles ("Chick") Evans, Jr., the Western association was able to raise $50,000, but this year it has set the mark at $1,000,000.

The tournaments are being conducted in splendid manner, and the patriotic spirit displayed by the public gives promise of making it a grand success. From the first match in April, when $20,000 was raised at French Lick, the golf followers have been responding.

"Chick" Evans is a very active worker for the Red Cross, as he is not only giving his time in the interest of the cause, but he is playing exhibition matches at many of these tournaments.

The western professional most widely known is Long Jim Barnes, Broadmore, Colorado Springs, who has been playing exhibition matches in the East this spring. Barnes' most brilliant performance this year was in smashing all records at the Oak Ridge Golf club, where he did the course in 69, going out in 36 and returning in 33. The previous record was 71, made by Tom Kerrigan, professional, who is now in the Naval Reserve force.

Among the most active of the golf workers for the Red Cross is the east is Mrs. William A. Galvin, Baltusrol, the metropolitan and Eastern champion. She has arranged a series of benefit matches for the Red Cross, playing the best of professionals and amateurs under the agreement that her opponent concede her nine strokes.

BOOTLEGGING IN OREGON GIVEN SERIOUS SETBACK

PENDLETON, Ore., July 1.—Bootlegging has received a setback in Yamhill county, Ore., following the raiding by Sheriff Taylor of what is believed to have been the most completely organized moonshining plant yet found. The plant boasted ten large vats, each of a capacity of over a barrel. Two prisoners and twenty-five gallons of prime corn whiskey were taken in the raid and the plant dismantled.

She asks the court to restore her rights to the lot and her maiden name, Jennie Ogyle.

HAS CLEVER CONTRIVANCE TO HARVEST CLOVER SEED

GREENVILLE, S. C., July 1.—An ingenious machine for harvesting clover seed has been perfected by J. L. Cannada, a pioneer clover raiser near Greenville. Mr. Cannada devised an exhaust fan mounted on a wagon driven by a small gasoline engine. A mouthpiece connected with the fan is lowered over the cloverheads and the current of air lifts the seeds out and deposits them into a suitable receptacle. The machine is said to work perfectly.
